

Welcome to Frame 2000

The only place for the finest custom framing in Los Angeles.

Frame 2000 has been around since 1989 in the heart of Venice, California providing outstanding fine framing services. To serve our customers better, in 2011 Frame 2000 acquired Frames Galore, enabling us to combine our efforts and give an even better standard of service.

Our frame and art consultants ensure that you get full custom service, and with 24 years of experience in the field we deliver service beyond our customers' expectations. We at Frame 2000 take time with our customers to understand their needs before we recommend a solution; we don't believe there is anything like a "one size fits all" solution! At Frame 2000 we have thousands of picture frame moldings, fabrics, mat board and other materials to meet your interior design needs.

Our designers and craftsmen will be at your service as they work with you to bring out a design that perfectly reflects the vision you have and the effect that you want to create. The perfect blend of high quality materials and creative design ensures that we can suit both your home and your commercial premises. Our priority is to ensure that you get friendly and helpful support in all phases of your project. Your contact with our professionals is unrestricted and all your questions will be answered in a swift, professional manner.

Quality and excellence are the forces that drive us to perfection. At Frame 2000 you are assured of getting superior quality fine framing services at highly competitive prices. You can even get custom picture matting from Frame 2000, which makes your pictures more attractive in a commercial market. Quality workmanship is assured by our state-of-the-art facilities, and top grade framing technology is at the center of every masterpiece that we deliver. We cater for a wide range of requests with our ultra modern systems, making us the finest choice for picture framing in Los Angeles.

Fine art printing is something that has endeared us to our customers. The fine designs and outlines that we create have helped to create a niche for Frame 2000 in Venice, California and beyond. Our team of professionals goes out of their way to ensure that all the work that we do is properly packaged for shipping. Our range of service is very diverse and caters for a wide range of clients. For commercials or ads we deliver high quality posters, and what's more, there are no hidden charges. We also do the mounting of the posters on request, giving our clients the visibility they need.

Customers with bulk projects enjoy great discounts. Honesty and respect is something that we treasure, and copyrighted material delivered to our customers cannot be reproduced without permission. Your special occasion photos which need a touch from professional hands for photo effects can be enhanced by our team of designers. For your original oil paintings we will give you a professional artist to do exactly what you want with the material of your choice.

Canvas transfer prints, canvas stretching, custom mirrors and art installation and de-installation are the other unique range of services that we provide. Frame 2000 is your one stop shop for all your artistic requirements. We accept all file formats to deliver a product that meets all your requirements.
